50 CENTS PER MONTH

GENERAL SIBERT REMOVED FROM SECOND COMMAND IN FRANCE

One Killed, Many Injured in Auto Accidents

JESSE JUSTICE LOSES LIFE IN DRAIN DITCH, WESTMINSTER

Car Skids on Slippery Pavement and Turns Over Into Canal

BODY PINNED BETWEEN WRECK AND DIRT BANK

Lost Control When Turned Out to Permit Another Car to Pass

The heavy fog of yesterday morning and last night, with the heavy traffic incident to the celebration of the holiday of the new year, caused the death of one Orange county man and injured to a number of residents of the county. The fog made the pavement slippery and particularly dangerous. A total of ten received injuries on the paved boulevard during the day and night.

KILLED

INJURED
G. A. Beavers, Westminster, cut on head and bruises about body.
Mrs. G. A. Beavers, Westminster, left knee cap broken, bruises.
Kenneth Hughes, of Orange, bruises.

Mrs. Kenneth Hughes, of Orange, severe bruises.
Miss Arden Trumble, Santa Ana, bruises.
Jerry Seamans, Olive, scalp wounds, dislocated thumb, possible internal injuries. Wife, cuts and scratches on face. Daughter, shoulder injured, probable dislocation.

Doizaka brothers, Japs of Garden Grove, one had two ribs broken; other rendered unconscious, but suffered no serious hurts.

Jesse A. Justice, aged 30, of Bolsa, lost his life yesterday morning when his machine skidded on the wet pavement near Westminster and went into a ditch of the Westminster Drainage district. He was caught between the machine and the bank. His neck was broken and his body crushed. The windshield and radiator of the car were damaged. The accident happened about 7 o'clock. Harry Harper of Talbot was the first one to reach the injured man and a few minutes later Dr. Chapin of Huntington Beach happened along. He pronounced Justice dead. The body was brought to the Mills and Winbiller Mission Funeral Home, where the inquest was held this morning at 10 o'clock.

The road on which the accident happened is that piece of boulevard from the end of the First street pavement on the Huntington Beach road, to the point where the pavement turns west to Seal Beach through Westminster. It is paralleled by one of the main canals of the Westminster Drainage district. The ditch is about eight feet deep. The boulevard is more or less covered with silt dropped from the shovel of the dredger in carrying loads of dirt from the ditch to the opposite side of the road. The fog yesterday morning made the silt extremely slippery and the boulevard dangerous to traffic.

Justice was returning home from Anaheim. He passed Harry Harper of Talbot in a machine just before the accident happened. He was traveling at terrific speed, it is said, and coming upon Harper suddenly made a quick turn to pass him. His car commenced skidding and got beyond his control, going over into the ditch. Harper rushed over to render what assistance he could. Dr. Chapin, en route from Huntington Beach to the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena, happened along in a few minutes, and made an examination of the body and pronounced Justice dead. Other autoists arriving on the scene assisted in extricating the body, which was done with considerable difficulty. The car Justice was driving belonged to Sterling Price, for whom Justice was working. Justice and Price were together until about 8 o'clock Monday night, and when they separated Justice said he was going home. Instead he went to Anaheim.

Justice was the son of Mr. and Mrs.

Missing Americans May Have Met Death At Hands of Teutons

By J. W. Pegler, United Press Staff Correspondent.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Jan. 2.—What is the fate of seven missing American soldiers of the twelve taken prisoner by the Germans in their trench raid of November 3?

Thousands of Sammies over the American zone were left to draw their own conclusions today on whether the boches had murdered seven helpless captives. The matter was called to every soldier's attention in an official division bulletin circulated today. The article sets forth these facts:

In the November raid the boches took twelve prisoners. Later, an illustrated German paper printed photographs of the first American prisoners, surrounded by a taunting crowd in Berlin and the photograph showed only five prisoners. The bulletin makes no suggestions as to the fate of the missing seven, but few officials are hopeful that they are yet alive.

A certain famous major general, commenting to the United Press today on the German atrocities, declared:

"The Huns' mistreatment of prisoners is one of the most frightful chapters of the war. The Sammies must be warned and must be prepared to sell their lives at the highest price; to fight to death, even in the face of overwhelming numbers."

The traditional good humor of the American soldiers was transformed into bitter rage when the Sammies today read bulletins announcing the German plans to treat future American prisoners as "persons of no intelligence" and to place them under unusual hardships.

CENTRAL POWERS WANT GENERAL DISCUSSION

Declare Proposals From Recent Conference Not Binding Until Then

PETROGRAD, Jan. 2.—Germany will not consider the Brest Litovsk declarations as binding on her allies unless the allies accept the invitation to negotiate a general peace, according to M. Pavlovich, a non-bolshevik delegate, who returned from the conference today.

"Germany's fundamental aim in the negotiations," he said, "is to establish an economic union from Hamburg to the Persian Gulf."

"The Bulgarian and Turkish representatives are more obstinate in the conferences than the Germans, but I do not think they will hamper future negotiations."

"In return for the evacuation of Belgium and France, Germany will demand the freeing of Mesopotamia, Arabia and Palestine as well as the return of Tripoli in case of further success against Italy."

BOLSHEVIKI PREPARE FOR DEFENSE
LONDON, Jan. 2.—The Russian bolsheviks are making preparations for defense against Germany and have broken off the peace negotiations because of Germany's refusal to withdraw her troops from Poland and other occupied sections of Russia, according to a sensational dispatch printed in the Daily News today from its Petrograd correspondent, Arthur Ransome.

"I have reliable information regarding the breaking off of peace negotiations which establishes the honesty of the bolshevik purpose," his dispatch asserted.

Details of Plan Not Published
"The central powers made a more detailed statement of their terms than that which has been published, including therein a demand that the German garrisons be retained at Riga, Libau and other strategic points."

"The Russians were uncompromisingly against this and also declared that self-definition of the peoples of Poland and other occupied parts of Russia was impossible until the last German soldier had left."

"The Germans asked for time in which to consider this refusal by the Russians and also begged that this stage of the negotiations be not published."

"The Russians refused this plea and left Brest Litovsk."

"Red guards are now being sent to reinforce the front and other preparations are being made for defense."

AUSTRO-GERMANS WANT VICTORY

ZURICH, Jan. 2.—A "victorious peace" with "territorial annexations and indemnities corresponding to our military successes," is demanded by the Austro-German patriotic commission, according to a dispatch received here today.

A recent manifesto issued by the organization bitterly protests against Count Czernin's terms, declaring:

GERMANY RUSHES SUB WARFARE TO FURTHER PEACE AIMS

Believe Organized Effort of U-boats Greater Than Hitherto Attempted

LONDON, Jan. 2.—Germany is making her greatest effort of the submarine war now, in the hope of furthering her peace projects.

The United Press is permitted to make this statement today, in advance of the usual weekly official announcement as to British ships sunk during the past week.

It is possible, according to the United Press information, that Germany has organized her submarine warfare on an offensive scale hitherto unknown.

The results of her concentrated drive are not yet available, but they may show indications of a temporary success.

British authorities, however, are certain nothing more can be achieved than this temporary success.

CENTRAL POWERS TO OFFER NEW TERMS

BERNE, Jan. 2.—Within ten days the central powers will make a new declaration of modified peace conditions, "owing to the Entente's attitude," according to a quotation from the Munich Nachrichten, received here today.

Recent dispatches have indicated violent opposition on the part of the Pan-Germans to the peace conditions announced at Brest Litovsk by Count Czernin. Presumably the modifications will favor more the militarists of Germany.

H. HOOVER ANSWERS CRITICISM MADE ON HIS ADMINISTRATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Herbert Hoover, food administrator, answered the criticism of his administration when he testified before the Senate Sugar investigating committee today.

The high food prices he attributed to a "tremendous increase in the per capita circulation of money which has advanced $9 per capita in the United States in one year due to the gold inflow" and to a "sudden withdrawal of millions of men from productive work to fight, who immediately became entirely consumers."

BRITISH TROOPS TURN ATTEMPTED RAID INTO ROUT, REPORTS HAIG

LONDON, Jan. 2.—British troops in the neighborhood of Mericourt yesterday evening turned an attempted triple raid by the Germans into a rout, Field Marshal Haig reported today.

Under cover of heavy bombardment, the enemy tried to raid in three sections. His artillery, however, was disorganized and the raiding parties failed to reach objectives.

While the Germans were still in No. Man's Land the British attacked, inflicting many casualties and taking some prisoners.

South of Lens, in the neighborhood of the Menin road and north of Luchendaele, other attempts were repulsed.

AUSTRIA ANNOUNCES WITHDRAWAL

VIENNA, via London, Jan. 2.—"Early Christmas day we withdrew from Zenson, the enemy not discovering our withdrawal until Monday," today's war office statement asserted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—Permission to place armed guards on the San Francisco water front to enforce the president's order keeping enemy aliens from within 300 feet of piers, was asked today by U. S. Marshal J. B. Holohan in a communication to Washington. The army has agreed to furnish the guards.

Blaze Wipes Out Paint Shop and Other Branches With Loss of $250,000

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 2.—Fire at 4 o'clock this morning destroyed eight acres of the Harrisburg Pipe and Bending Company's munitions plant, which has a big Government contract for four-inch navy shells used by the submarine chasers, with a loss of more than $250,000.

The blaze wiped out the paint shop, the cylinder, or "bottle" shop, and the rough turning shop. The departments that do the finer part of the shell making were untouched.

GOVERNOR STEPHENS CHARGED ATTEMPTING TO PASS BAD CLAIM

John Francis Neylan Alleges Executive Tried to Aid Los Angeles Sheriff

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—Francis Neylan, former chairman of the State Board of Control, charged Governor Stephens this afternoon with having attempted to persuade him to pass a claim of $2199 in favor of Sheriff Wm. Hammel of Los Angeles after he had informed the Governor as chairman of the Board of Control that the claim was fraudulent.

Neylan's statement indicates that this is the trouble that led to his retirement as head of the Board of Control and also as a member of the Council of Defense. The statement further heightens the political row.

CHIEF RAINBOW DIVISION GETS TRANSFER TO EAST DEPT.

Ill Health of General Mann Causes His Release From Active Service Abroad

PERSHING ASSISTANT NOT YET ANNOUNCED

General Chas. Mencher to Take Place In Command of National Guard Force

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Orders were issued today assigning General Mann, who has been commander of the Rainbow division in France, to the command of the Eastern Department with headquarters at Governors Island, N. Y. At the same time General Hoyle, retired, was retired from that department and returned to the inactive list. It was reported that General Sibert, head of General Pershing's expeditionary forces, would soon be assigned to command the Southeastern Department with headquarters at Charleston, S. C.

The Sibert assignment is apparently the direct result of a recommendation from General Pershing to relieve him from his important task abroad. General Mann's assignment, however, was anticipated because he has been in a hospital and is deemed physically unable to continue active direction of so important a position as leadership of the Rainbows.

Mann's Successor
Mann's place in France will be taken by General Charles Mencher, but Sibert's successor has not been announced.

Mann and Sibert with General Blatchford, returned to the States yesterday. Mann, here today, received his orders from the Governors Island place from the chief of staff, but the Sibert assignment, while understood to be ready, has not actually been issued.

Mann reported that the Rainbows were "in good spirits and progressing ably despite the fact that almost incessant wet and cold had inflicted unusual hardships and left a considerable trail of colds and pneumonia."

It was suggested that other retired officers now commanding departments will be relieved by men on the active list later, though apparently no general policy in this respect has been developed.

The return of Sibert caused a real stir in the War Department, inasmuch as it suggested there had been friction between Pershing and Sibert and because Sibert was being removed from a highly important place to one of comparatively little consequence under the present alignment of war work.

FORMERLY SERVED ON PACIFIC COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—Major General William L. Sibert, who will command the Southeastern Department of the Army, was in temporary command of the Western Department, with headquarters in San Francisco, for several months last spring.

When he was made a brigadier general eighteen months ago, he was given command of the coast artillery of the Pacific Coast district, serving in that capacity until Major General Franklin Bell was transferred to command of the Eastern Department. General Sibert acted as commander of the Western Department until the arrival of Major General Hunter Liggett, when he was promoted to be major general and sent to France in command of the first American troops landed on French soil.

Just before sailing for France, General Sibert was married in Pittsburg.

INVESTIGATE SOURCE OF MONEY USED FOR DEFENSE OF I. W. W.'S

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—Whether German money is being used to defend I. W. W.'s under arrest at Sacramento and Fresno is to be determined in an investigation started today by the U. S. attorney's office. It follows the arrest of James Price charged with violating the espionage act in his efforts to collect money for the I. W. W. defense. His bail was set at $5000. Miss Theodora Pollak and Albert L. Fox had been arrested on similar charges.

EVANGELISTS IN THIRD WEEK OF SERIES START PROFITABLY

Fine Tour of County Monday
Prepares For Enthusiastic
Meeting Last Night

The new year was properly ushered in at the tabernacle last night after a day spent in various holiday enjoyments, the people of Santa Ana and the Biederwolf party were ready to take up the work of the week in the evangelistic campaign. While the audience was not as large as on some evenings, the tabernacle was comfortably filled, and the meeting was up to ordinary enthusiasm and interest.

Heaton's lively song service got everyone into a fine spirit for the sermon by Dr. Biederwolf. The evangelist preached a stirring sermon, and concluding his powerful appeal a number of people crowded down to the front to take the preacher by the hand and consecrate their lives to God.

Monday's Tour of County Santa Ana again proved how quickly and generously she can answer to a call for volunteer work when after Dr. Biederwolf's appeal for automobiles to take him, his associate workers and the members of the chorus choir on a trip to the towns of the county, over thirty automobiles decorated with flowers and flags were in waiting for him at the tabernacle on Monday morning at 9 o'clock sharp.

It was a surprise, a Santa Ana surprise, to the evangelist and his party, for never in the history of all his evangelistic work had there been such a prompt and generous response.

As quickly as possible the automobiles were filled and with Dr. Biederwolf and Rev. O'Rear, chairman of the executive committee, in the lead of the procession, they passed through the city's main thoroughfares with colors fluttering gaily in the sunshine and on to Tustin.

Here they formed a great horse shoe in front of the postoffice and with the chorus and audience of townfolk began their crusade by singing "He Included Me" and "We Shall See the King Some Day."

Then Heaton and Bachemeyer rendered a duet entitled, "I Must Appeal to Jesus." Rev. O'Rear introduced Evangelist Biederwolf in a few well-chosen remarks and the evangelist said: "In those days when the people are in such a mad rush after money that men do not seem to have time to tie their shoe strings it would be well for them to stop and remember that they have but one life to live and one soul to save and they must be at work now to save that soul, and to keep from living and dying like a dog without a thought or care for the future."

The choir sang "Tell It Wherever You Go" and then everybody said good-bye and Happy New Year and the procession of gaily decked automobiles moved out of town and off along the sun-lit boulevards to El Modena.

At El Modena the automobiles swung around the Friends' church and the choir took a position before its doors while Dr. Biederwolf and his associates occupied the steps of the church. Dr. Biederwolf took occasion to tell the assembled townspeople of the coming "Community Day" next Saturday and invite them to come to Santa Ana and to the tabernacle where an all-day session will be held and a picnic lunch served, asking them to bring their lunch and telling them that all the coffee they could drink would be served freely. Then he said, "The people of our country are hitting the earth so hard in their greed for gold getting that they seem to have no time to look after their souls' needs." He warned them to prepare in this world for the next and told the story of the decadence and death of Luke Howard.

At Olive the procession of automobiles drew up in front of the First National Bank and after the choir had sung "As a Volunteer" Evangelist Biederwolf stood up in the big touring car at the head of the procession and told the people of Olive that every man, even the black man in the jungles of darkest Africa had a religion and it would be well for them to have some sort of a religion in Olive which he had no doubt they had, but to those present who were without one he pleaded that they accept the religion of Jesus Christ.

At Orange the long line of vehicles paraded around the Plaza in the center of the beautiful little city and after the choir had sung "Tell It Wherever You Go," and "We Shall See the King Some Day," Mr. Heaton spoke of the "Community Day" next Saturday, inviting the people of Orange to bring their lunch and spend the day at the tabernacle to hear the music and speaking and enjoy the hour of Chautauqua service. He also spoke of the county Sunday school parade of children to be held a week from next Saturday when all of the little ones from the Sunday schools of the county will parade on the streets of Santa Ana.

At Anaheim, Placentia and Fullerton the choir sang their sweet songs, the evangelist uttered words of admonition and peace to the throng and here the party stopped for lunch, scattering out among the cafeterias, lunch rooms and restaurants. Assembling again at the junction of North America avenue and North Spadra road the procession proceeded to Garden Grove and after a brief stop the automobiles swung off to Santa Ana, arriving home about 3 o'clock, after one of the most successful tours ever made in this section in an evangelistic campaign.

CLASS MAY BE TENTATIVE ONE

Local Board Recommends on Industrial and Agricultural Claims

The local exemption board does not give final decision upon agricultural or industrial claims. Under the questionnaire system, the local board does make a recommendation to the appeal board upon those two claims, but as under the old system the appeal board makes the decision upon those claims. A man who would be classed in Class 1 if he had no agricultural or industrial claim is tentatively put in Class 1 by the local board and will remain there until his claim is acted upon by the appeal board. The local board will then place the man in the deferred class, if his claim is granted by the appeal board. A number of instances have come to the attention of the local board where there was some misapprehension felt because this point was not understood.

IS BREAKING IN OTHER MEN TO CARE OF MEN WOUNDED

Walter Reeves Writes Other Interesting Letters In France

Walter Reeves had turkey for Thanksgiving dinner, and he seems to have enjoyed it hugely. He is with the St. Louis unit at a base hospital in France, and letters received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Reeves, give some interesting details of his work.

"The change to D line," says he in a letter written on Nov. 20, "gives me a little different line of work to do. Our reinforcements having arrived I am breaking in some new men for ward masters, and I am sort of straw boss of nine wards with four new men to break in. I now have quite a little time to help the doctor and medical students who do the dressing. I did one heavy dressing by myself yesterday—shoved the gauze three or four inches into the poor man's leg and had the satisfaction of hearing the patient say that the dressing was a lot easier today than usual, although he did not know who dressed him."

The Santa Anan writes that new winter barracks have been finished, and that life is more comfortable than it had been. He tells of a new chaplain, Capt. Taylor, who has made a hit with the enlisted men because of his ability to mix.

On Dec. 4, Walter Reeves wrote: Base Hospital number 21, Dec. 4, 1917.

My Dear Folks:

I announced in my last letter that there was a rumor abroad that the enlisted men of Base Hospital No. 21 were to have a Thanksgiving feed at the expense of the U. S. government. We did have! Indeed we did have a regular meal. Listen to what we had: Turkey (white meat)—dressing, sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce, raisin and chocolate pie, apples, bread and butter and jam and coffee. The turkey arrived too late to have dinner on Thanksgiving so we had to wait until the day after before we could be thankful but it was something about which we could raise our voices in thanks and praise, wasn't it? The dinner was served in our new barracks covered with linen (?) table cloths and decorated with mistletoe. This was a rare treat, the linen I mean and it seemed almost too good to be true at first.

All the barracks are now complete and we move in tomorrow. There are four new huts which will provide sleeping quarters for the future personnel of the enlisted men. Each hut is provided with two stoves and, while they are not apt to over heat the place they will keep Jack Frost on the outside. It has been hard to find a place about camp where one could sit down in comfort. The huts should remedy that difficulty and should permit us to write letters or read in something approaching comfort. Watch out now for a flood of letters. I do owe so many letters I hope my friends will forgive my seeming neglect and thoughtlessness. It really is neither and I am sure they would understand if they were over here.

Work is about as usual, a little heavier on myself just now for I am breaking in some new men and in addition am continually helping more with dressings, putting on splints or doing other work that the doctor or medical students have been doing heretofore. I am getting more confidence in myself and apparently the Dr. is getting more in me.

Roy once asked me to tell more in detail about the work here. I cannot give much detailed information but perhaps I can say more than I have in former letters about the condition of the wounded when they arrive, their treatment and rate of recovery. They usually reach us after a stay at the C. C. S., in which case they have been bathed, dressed, wounds well tended to and in general are in good condition.

After a big battle, on the other hand the C. C. S., has no time to do more

THE MAKING OF A FAMOUS MEDICINE

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Is Prepared For Woman's Use.

A visit to the laboratory where this successful remedy is made impresses even the casual looker-on with the reliability, accuracy, skill and cleanliness which attends the making of this great medicine for woman's ills.

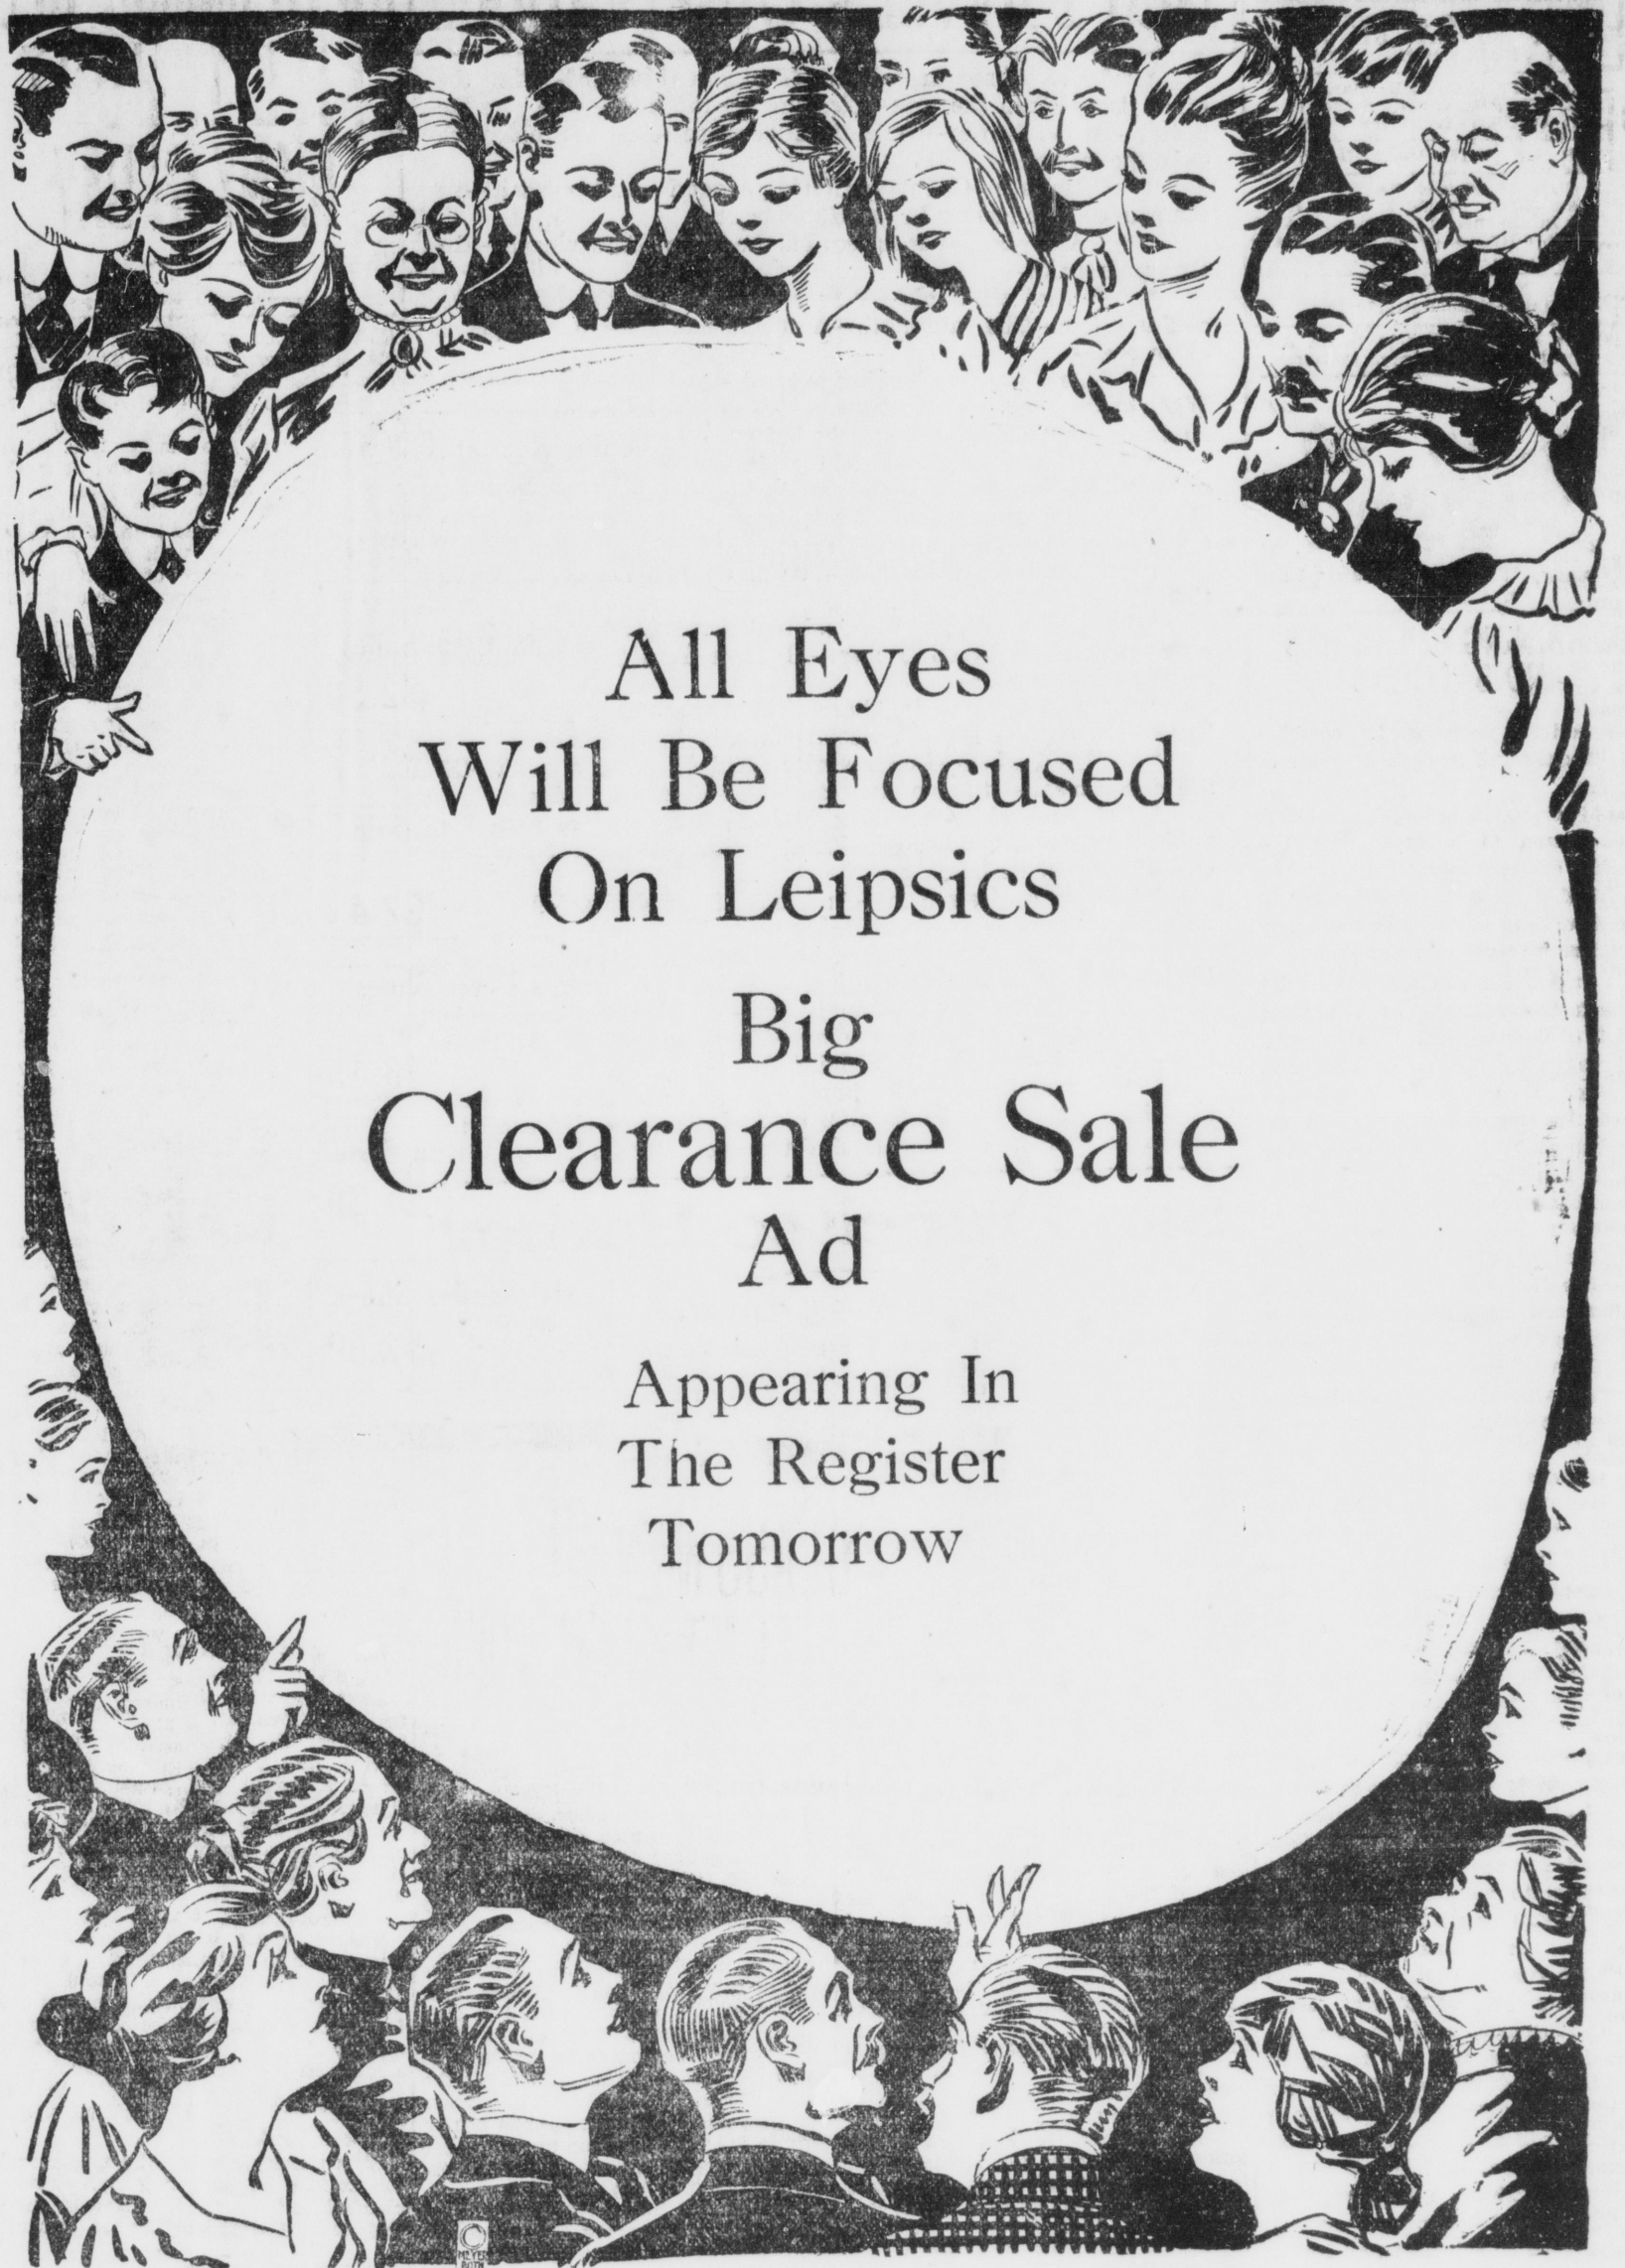

Over 350,000 pounds of various herbs are used annually, and all have to be gathered at the season of the year when their natural juices and medicinal substances are at their best.

The most successful solvents are used to extract the medicinal properties from these herbs.

Every utensil and tank that comes in contact with the medicine is sterilized and as a final precaution in cleanliness the medicine is pasteurized and sealed in sterile bottles.

It is the wonderful combination of roots and herbs, together with the skill and care used in its preparation which has made this famous medicine so successful in the treatment of female ills.

The letters from women who have been restored to health by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which we are continually publishing attest to its virtue.

ARE TO PROSECUTE KEYES ON CHARGE HERE, NOT. A'S

A Los Angeles paper published a statement that Los Angeles county is going to prosecute Earl Keyes upon an old charge brought in Los Angeles in May, 1915. After authorities there dropped the charge, exonerating his bondsmen, Keyes was allowed to go free. He is now charged with the murder of Leonard Rickard, aged 11, near Newport Beach, Dec. 7, 1917. That charge is being in this county, and the man to be prosecuted here. The statement that the Los Angeles authorities now want Keyes in order to awaken the charge that had been gotten there seems almost preposterous.

"They will never get him," said Deputy District Attorney Koepsel this morning. "Keyes will be tried here for the murder of Leard Herwick."

Had Keyes been dealt with by the Los Angeles authorities, and the charge there brought to a determination, Keyes might have been in the penitentiary instead of loose.

The Los Angeles paper has the following:

"Superior Judge Frank R. Willis has reset the case in which Keyes was charged with kidnapping Glen Ludlow May 15, 1915, on the criminal court calendar for early in the month."

"Glen Ludlow was rescued, officers alleged, after Keyes took him from home to Randsburg."

"The Keyes case dragged through the courts. Keyes was arraigned June 29, 1915, and trial was set for June 2. The trial was continued to August 11. Bail was declared forfeit, but on June 30, 1916, the order was rescinded and trial was set for August 4, 1916. On July 20, 1916, Keyes was sent to the psychopathic ward of the county hospital."

"On August 4, records show that the trial was continued to the 11th and then to October 21, 1916. A few days before that date the case was set off the court calendar, in department 17."

"Keyes was at liberty and the bail bond had been exonerated, when the case was taken from the trial calendar more than a year ago."

HEAVY BRUSH FIRE SENDS TREMENDOUS VOLUME OF SMOKE

Yesterday a great volume of smoke swept across from the Santa Rosa mountains, near the headwaters of the San Mateo creek, and covered the entire south end of the county, giving the sun through the smoke a bright red appearance. Forest Ranger Stephenson of El Toro had two crews of men sent to the fire from the other side of the range. He stated that the fire has covered a bigger area than any fire that has occurred on the Trabuca division of the Cleveland National Forest for years, but that, fortunately, it is confined largely to a territory where its harm is minimized. There is no watershed of importance concerned, and but little grazing territory is concerned. There are no farm houses in the section burned over.

COMBINING CHURCHES AND SALOONS

Connecticut proposes to combine her churches and saloons in order to save fuel.

Let us hasten to explain that the churches are not going to be combined with the saloons. Churches are to be consolidated, so that two or more congregations will use one building.

The suggestion was made recently by the fuel committee of the state council of defense, and has already been taken up by many churches. Wherever it is possible, congregations in the same locality will be expected to pool their services and meetings, in a building of central location, or to hold them at different hours in the same building.

The arrangement thus effected is to be for the duration of the war. If it works as well as it should, many of the mergers will probably continue when the war is over. For there will be a big saving of many things besides fuel, particularly in cases where a community has been maintaining more churches than it can afford, with little essential difference between the denominations and none of the churches utilized to its full capacity.

The application of the idea to the saloons was an afterthought. The church people began to complain it wasn't fair to ask them to double up when there were so many more saloons than churches, all of them burning coal without providing any appreciable moral or economic equivalent, and few saloons, too, being utilized to their full capacity. The Civic Federation has taken up the plea, and has asked the state fuel committee and the county commissioners to use their efforts to get the saloons to accept it. Along with voluntary mergers, the conservationists propose shorter hours and the suspension of some licenses.

These changes, too, are meant for the "duration of the war." As in the case of the churches, it isn't likely that there will be a relapse to the old system thereafter—but for a different reason. There will always be churches. From the present outlook, there may be no saloons at all by the time the war is over.

BULLY FOR BELGIUM!

Let us not pity Belgium so much.

An American correspondent, after touring the front held by Belgian troops in Flanders, reports that what he learned there gave him the biggest surprise he has had in six months. He had thought of the Belgian soldiers as "a mere handful, poorly clothed and fed, possessing inferior guns and artillery, and not counting for much from a military standpoint." He discovered these remarkable facts:

Belgium has a magnificent body of troops in action. Man for man, they are the biggest soldiers, physically, now fighting on the western front. With the possible exception of the Americans, they are the best dressed. Their fighting equipment is inferior to none. Their spirit is beyond praise.

But the biggest surprise has to do with numbers. In the fall of 1914, when the Belgian army was flung back into the last remaining corner of Belgian territory, it was reduced to 82,000 men. Today, after holding its own for three years, beating back every German onslaught and necessarily suffering great losses, the correspondent says that army is "vastly larger."

Where has it come from? We might say that it has sprung miraculously out of Flanders mud, from the fertile blood of fallen heroes. A more prosaic version of the matter is that nearly every able-bodied man in eastern Belgium has undertaken to sneak through the German lines and join his king's army. Thousands have been shot by the sentries in this adventure. But scores of thousands have got through, and are now fighting, with a fierce determination bred of intolerable wrongs, for the redemption of their country.

A nation that rises above overwhelming woes, as Belgium has done, is not a nation to pity. Pity is for the weak and helpless. Belgium should rather be admired for her virile strength.

San Francisco Harbor

BY EDWARD P. E. TROY

The harbor of San Francisco belongs to the people of the State of California, and has not cost them a single dollar in taxes. Its receipts have always paid the expense of operation, interest and sinking fund of bond issues. During the past month the San Francisco "Examiner" has published articles tending to show that this harbor is not being properly maintained, and that it does not compare favorably with other ports.

The State of California has assets representing money expended on the harbor of San Francisco amounting to $20,004,316. This sum does not include the belt railroad valued at $947,289, or any of the seawall lots valued at $5,000,000 and other property which have come into possession of the Harbor Commission without any outlay of money.

During the long period when the Southern Pacific controlled the politics of California, it always made sure of the Harbor Commission. As a result, the only wharves which had railroad tracks, by which freight could be transferred direct from ship to car were the railroad wharves. At all others, merchants had to go to the heavy expense of hauling freight in drays with horses. Today every wharf has railroad tracks on each of its sides, so that freight cars may be hauled to the side of the ship.

In those days, the Southern Pacific influence prevented the laying of the few hundred feet of track necessary to connect the belt railroad at the Ferry Building, so that cars could be hauled to and from the north and south sections of the waterfront. The present Harbor Commissioners built that extension immediately, when they took charge. Cars numbering about 72,000 each year are now regularly run over that track, saving merchants and shippers about $10 per car, or a total reduction in cost to the commerce of the port of $720,000 annually less than when the Southern Pacific controlled.

Harbor Commissioner McCallum, in addressing a meeting of citizens a few weeks ago, on the growth of San Francisco's waterfront, stated that the commerce of the port had grown 36 1/2 per cent since 1912. At the same time, he said, the berthing space, or facilities for docking vessels had increased from 37,034 lineal feet in 1914 to 54,225 feet in 1917, or 46 per cent. The pier area, or space for handling cargoes, had increased from 2,578,868 square feet in 1914 to 4,128,393 square feet in 1917, or 60 per cent.

It is estimated that produce of the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys amounting to $60,000,000 passes over the wharves of San Francisco each year, and is marketed in that city, besides the great trade of that city with other states and foreign countries.

The fact that the Port of San Francisco is under public ownership, and free from the deterrent influence of railroads and other private interests is of immense value to the farmers and merchants of the interior, as it is the sole means by which railroad freight charges are kept down.

One of the "Examiner's" stories made a comparison of San Francisco with New Orleans, and asserted that $20,000,000 had been expended on the latter port since 1914. The annual report of the New Orleans Harbor Commissioners, for August, 1917, just four months ago, shows the total value of the property belonging to that port to be $14,945,382.36. The total of all the bonds issued during the sixteen years the port has been under public ownership is $11,432,000. This includes $4,000,000 issued this year, of which more than half remains unexpended.

The Port of New Orleans has spent this money on wharves and warehouses, the latter for cotton and grain, the principal freight at that port, have been recently built. The total investment in warehouses and their accounts is $5,135,421.50. This leaves the amount invested in harbor improvements, $9,809,960.86. Yet, the "Examiner's" ments at the Port of New Orleans a wonderful story asserts that $20,000,000 have been spent there in the last three years!

The New Orleans report shows its total wharf (pier) area to be 3,069,461 square feet. The figures above show San Francisco to have 34 per cent more wharf area than New Orleans.

TWO WESTMINSTER PEOPLE INJURED AT GARDEN GROVE

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Beavers of Westminster were taken to the Garden Grove hospital yesterday afternoon as the result of an accident near that place. They were going to Garden Grove to witness a ball game there when their machine was struck by a Ford touring car driven by Kenneth L. Hughes, of Orange. Mr. and Mrs. Beavers were taken to the Violet Hospital at Garden Grove, where both were treated. Mrs. Beavers suffered a fracture of her left knee cap and is still at the hospital. Mr. Beavers sustained a cut several inches long in the head. He returned to his home last night. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes were on their way to Long Beach to visit the latter's mother. Mrs. Hughes was badly injured, but was taken to the home of her mother in Long Beach and the extent of her injuries could not be ascertained.

ARMY OFFICER'S CAR HIT, SAYS IT WAS SPEED

Last night on the state highway near El Toro, an automobile driven by Harry Simon, a tailor, of 618 Spring street, Los Angeles, struck a machine driven by Major Ralph L. Byrnes of Camp Kearny. Simon's car turned over on its side, but none of its three occupants was more than slightly hurt. The major's car did not turn over. He and his wife and several others in it were not hurt.

This morning when Major Byrnes swore to a complaint charging Simon with careless driving, he said that Simon came around another car so fast that he swerved back and forth on the highway and before he could straighten out the rear of Simon's car struck the major's car while the major's car was more than half off of the highway to its right.

Simon asserted that the major had the middle of the highway. Simon pleaded not guilty to careless driving, and his trial was set for Jan. 9.

AUTO SMASHED BY STEAM ENGINE AT OLIVE

An automobile driven by Jerry Seamans of Olive was rammed by an engine and tender of the Santa Fe Saturday night about 8 o'clock, with the result that the lives of four occupants of the automobile were in jeopardy. That any of them escaped alive is a marvel. Of the four in the machine, one, a baby two weeks old, escaped unhurt.

Seamans was crossing the railroad at Olive when an engine and tender backed down upon him. The automobile was almost across. The tender struck the rear wheels of the automobile, and in an instant the machine was thrown against a post.

Seamans was thrown clear. Among his most severe bruises was one upon his hip. He was unable to walk. Mrs. Seamans was caught under the wreckage. She crawled out with the baby. Mrs. Seamans received a gash near a corner of her mouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Seaman's daughter, the fourth member of the party, was caught between the automobile and a telephone post. Her shoulder was badly hurt.

PLENTY OF WAR WORK AT HOME FOR WOMEN OF PATRIOTISM

Mrs. Anna Howard Shaw Says Too Many Are Rushing off to Europe to Work

BY GEORGE MARTIN

(United Press Staff Correspondent) WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Too many American women are racing off to Europe or tearing up and down the land looking for "something patriotic" to do while children at home are becoming delinquents and young girls are inadequately safeguarded. There's plenty of war work at home they might be doing too.

That in brief was the opinion expressed to the United Press by Mrs. Anna Howard Shaw, chairman of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense.

And borrowing a phrase from her ancient suffrage rivals, the axis, this former president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association added:

"Woman's place, unless she can give expert assistance abroad as nurse or doctor, is at home."

"Children are not so well cared for as they should be. The increase of juvenile delinquency proves that. Girls need more protection. Factories and stores want workers. Some women can save food. Others, who cannot go to work outside the home many be able to offer a place to live, rooms or food, to those who can work."

"The woman's committee has put out a card for the women of the nation, listing 154 occupations, most of which can be followed right in a woman's home town, that will help America win the war," Dr. Shaw said.

"Her own country needs the patriotic American woman right now," said Dr. Shaw, "and she has only to look around from her front door to see necessary work which is going undone."

"Today we know that we have a great force that has scarcely been in use at all. Registration is helping many women in the thirty-five states where it has been taken or is being prepared for, to see their own possibilities for service."

"A study of the registration cards will show many ways in which each one may give service (whether she is trained or untrained. Many trades and professions enumerated are essential in the industries connected with the war. Others are necessary to maintain life in town or country to release men for active war service."

SOCIAL DAY

Woman's Club Enjoys Clever Features on Monday at Tiffany Home

The social day of the Woman's Club held Monday afternoon at the home of the vice president, Mrs. R. Ruth Tiffany of Spurgeon street, was greatly enjoyed by the following members: Mrs. J. M. Akin, I. D. Annis, C. F. Crose, E. Lash, C. M. McCamey, Geo. Slocum, Frank Ey, Mary Rowell, S. M. Dearing, C. S. Dunphy, Pinney, John Taylor, F. A. Marks, I. D. Mills, James Clark, Henry Diers, Annie Gale, John Hutchins, J. J. Pyle, B. Utley, Chas. Johnson, C. M. Wells.

Sewing snags on old cloth pillow covers and knitting were the activities engaged in for Red Cross work, by the more industrious members. The club voted to buy a bolt of old cloth and snags for pillows to be used for the wounded soldiers.

President Emeritus Mrs. Elizabeth H. Mills, presented a souvenir New Year's greeting to each member present. A vote of thanks was tendered her for her kindly remembrance.

In lighter vein, camouflaged telegrams from President Wilson, Herbert C. Hoover, Kaiser Wilhelm and others were read, all wishing the club a prosperous year.

An art gallery under the skillful management of Mrs. Ella Lash, offered much merriment.

Many original ideas were advanced in the ego test contest. Mrs. Slocum's answers were voted the most clever. Mrs. Nina Crose was most proficient in naming the presidents of the United States.

The hostess served a dainty Hooverized luncheon, Mrs. C. M. McCamey presiding at the table.

Delightful Picnic
Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Baker, proprietors of Baker's Bakery, took all of the members of their force and their families, numbering twenty-five in all, to Orange County Park yesterday to spend New Year's.

The picnicers went to the beautiful picnic grounds in the morning and at noon a sumptuous hot turkey dinner was served by the hosts and thoroughly enjoyed by their guests.

The afternoon was happily passed with games, social chat and other pleasures to be found about the park and all gave Mr. and Mrs. Baker a hearty vote of thanks, three cheers and a tiger. All felt ready to do a good year's work, after the delights of such an outing.

WEDDED MONDAY

Miss Clara Rounds and Neal Smith Begin New Year Together; Pretty Romance

A pretty romance of two years' duration and one of the prettiest home weddings of the Yuletide season was solemnized Monday morning at 10 o'clock, when Miss Clara Delight Rounds became the bride of Neal Jay Smith, son of R. B. Smith of this city. The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rounds.

The bride made a beautiful picture in her wedding gown of cadet blue messaline satin with a shower bouquet of Cecile Brunner buds, white cyclamen and maiden hair fern.

The couple, unattended, plighted their vows in the arch way between the living room and dining room, banked with ferns and pink and white roses.

Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties witnessed the impressive rite ceremony performed by the Rev. Harcourt W. Peck.

The company included Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rounds, Misses Lela Eldora and Esther Rounds, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Carlson, Robert Smith, Mrs. Ellen Teel, Nat Rochester, Arland Purrington.

A number of useful and costly gifts were received, showing in what high esteem the young couple are held by their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left immediately for a brief wedding trip, after which they will make their home here, Mr. Smith being a sterling young man in the employ of W. D. Baker.

A delightful family dinner was given on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Rounds in honor of their daughter's marriage.

His Back Hurt When He Stopped

"Just the one box of Foley Kidney Pills relieved my backache."—J. W. Etris, Etris, Ga.

"Last year I was suffering with a terrible backache," writes J. W. Etris of Etris, Ga. "Every time I'd lean or stoop over to one side, I'd have a painful catch in my back just over my kidneys. I tried medicines with no good results. I bought a bottle of Foley Kidney Pills, and just the one box entirely relieved my backache. It has been some time since I took them, so I think I am well."

Weakness, overworked, stopped-up kidneys cause stiff joints, sore muscles, rheumatism, sleep disturbing bladder ailments, biliousness and various other ills. Foley Kidney Pills are a scientific medicine, compounded to clear the kidneys and restore them to healthy action by dissolving and driving out of the system the waste products and poisons that cause kidney trouble and bladder ailments. You will like their tonic and restorative action, ready effect and quick results.

AT HOME TO FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crookshank Receive Friends Yesterday With Informality

The good old-fashioned New Year's day at home celebrations have become almost a thing of the past, but yesterday Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crookshank revived the custom at their lovely home in Tustin, receiving during the afternoon from three to five o'clock about forty friends, who called to wish them the joys of the season, especially as they have recently moved into their home in this beautiful spot.

The Christmas decorations of red-berried holly and the brilliant Christmas tree with its gleaming tapers still remained and these were augmented by starry poinsettias and wreaths and a cheery fire with its Yule log crackling merrily added to the coziness of the scene.

Delightful informality prevailed and Mr. and Mrs. Crookshank were assisted by the former's sister, Miss Lida Crookshank, Mrs. Clarence S. Crookshank and the hostess' sister, Mrs. Shirley White of Los Angeles, who poured tea, coffee and punch, served with wafers and delicious candies.

Whist, the favorite game of the members, was played by twelve, the prizes going to Mrs. A. L. Heard, Miss Mildred McNeal and Mrs. Blanche Smith.

Later the gentlemen arrived and all were served with a dainty collation upon the card tables.

Those enjoying Mrs. Smith's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Durkee of Newport Beach, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Heard of Balboa, Mr. and Mrs. Proctor, Mrs. W. J. Kelly, Mrs. Ida King, Mrs. Blanche Smith, Mrs. I. A. Mecham, Mrs. Agnes Noble, Miss Ruth Grouard, Miss Naomi Proctor, and Miss Anna Bierhouse.

WHISTLES, BELLS, BOMBS AND YELLS USHER IN NEW YEAR

With more noise than has marked the demonstration here for many a year, the new year was ushered in. The Catholic church bell pealed forth at a minute before 12 Monday night. Then came bombs and pistol shots, and shouting from various parts of the city. A half-dozen husky whistles, including an exceptionally long blast from the woolen mill aided in the bringing in of 1918.

HUNDREDS OF COUNTY PEOPLE SEE PARADE

Hundreds of Orange county people journeyed to Pasadena yesterday to witness the annual rose tournament there. The display was of a different character from its predecessors and therefore was not quite as extensive. It was more in the nature of a patriotic display and the unique manner in which military features were developed made the tournament a most interesting one. The Red Cross and marching soldiers dominated the parade.

Anaheim was the only city in the county represented with a float.

SANTA ANA PRODUCE HAS ARTISTIC WINDOW

J. G. Morrow of the Santa Ana Produce company is "some" artist. He has been having some very artistic designs in one of the large display windows of the store in the Odd Fellows building, including a flag made of beans of various colors.

Today there is a leaf from the calendar of Jan. 1918 in the window. The background is on soft white salt, the lettering being done in black and it is attracting much attention, the figures being large enough to be very plainly seen from the sidewalk.

OBITUARY

The many Santa Ana friends of Mrs. Alice H. Lacy were saddened last week to learn of her death at Ozark, Arkansas, after a year's illness. For over twenty years Mrs. Lacy was a notable figure in Santa Ana life, and to possess her friendship was a privilege. A Southern woman of rare charm and broad culture, her gracious kindness and loveliness endeared her to every one fortunate enough to know her, and her removal to Arkansas six years ago left a place that no one has ever filled. Mrs. Lacy was a most helpful worker in all the organizations connected with the Church of the Messiah, and was a valued member of the Phebe Society, of which she was one of the charter members.

A sense of personal loss and grief is felt by all who knew her, and the sincerest sympathy is extended to her husband and to the five children who survive her. They are Mrs. S. A. Perinat and A. G. Lacy of Van Buren, Ark.; Mrs. J. B. Carter, of Ozark, Ark.; with whom she and Mr. Lacy have made their home for the past six years; Mrs. Dan Hunt, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Mrs. A. H. T. Taylor, of Los Angeles.

I gave her Foley's Honey and Tar and now she is all right. I have told all my friends about it." Insist on the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar. Rowley Drug Co.

FAREWELL GIVEN IN HONOR OF REV. DARSIE

Popular Pastor Leaves For Work In Y. M. C. A.; Given
Pleasant Banquet

The members of the Men's Bible Class and the members of the Women's Bible Class of the Christian Church tendered a banquet Monday evening in the church dining room in honor of their pastor, Rev. Lloyd Darsie, who left yesterday to take up Y. M. C. A. work in the army cantonments. Rev. Darsie goes directly to Houston, Texas, and from there will be sent to the camp where he is to be stationed. He did not know when he left here where he would be located.

About fifty people gathered to do honor to their pastor who has endeared himself to the members of the congregation here through his earnest work, and successful leadership. Following a well-prepared supper, interspersed addresses were presented with W. B. Martin, teacher of the Men's Bible Class acting as toastmaster.

The principal address of the evening was made by Dr. J. A. Stevenson of the Presbyterian Church. He was followed in a short address by Judge W. H. Thomas.

In his response to the honor shown him, Rev. Darsie told of some of the things he hoped to accomplish in his work with the Association. He stated that there was a possibility that his son, a student at Pomona College, would also enter the Association army work now that "the old man" had gone into it. Young Darsie is not within draft age, missing the registration date by one day. He was 21 on June 6.

The members of the women's class presented Rev. Darsie with a beautiful wrist watch with which he will remember the loving thoughtfulness of his congregation while he is away from home.

Rev. Darsie left here yesterday at 1 o'clock. A number of the men of the church went to the depot to see him off and to wish him God speed.

The Christian Church has granted Rev. Darsie an indefinite leave of absence. It is expected that someone will be chosen by the official board of the congregation within a very short time to supply the pulpit during the pastor's absence. Mrs. Darsie and her sister, Mrs. Clark, will remain in Santa Ana during the Rev. Darsie's leave of absence.

AMBASSADOR OF ARGENTINE IN IMPORTANT JOB

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Romulo S. Naon, the Argentine ambassador, and an ardent exponent of Pan-Americanism, acted as the strenuous go-between and adviser when Secretary Lansing published Count Luxburg's notorious diplomatic correspondence.

Since the Luxburg duplicity was exposed—the Argentine republic has been going through one of the greatest crises in its history. The strong pro-ally party there has been balked from entering the war, on account of President Irigoyen's rigid neutrality.

Ambassador Naon—his friends call him Dr. Naon—has suddenly been placed in a position of even greater importance than his president. He is his nation's principal adviser—since Washington is the world's war capital. Immense business of the Argentine republic—the South American counterpart of the United States—is transacted at 1806 Corcoran street, in a cream-colored brick structure magnificently furnished.

TEACHING FORCE OF CITY MAKES HOLIDAY SHIFT

New Teachers Take Positions
Filling Vacancies Made By Resignations, Weddings

A number of new teachers are at work today in the city schools following resignations and grants of leaves of absence to several of the teachers. Little Dan Cupid played a part in the vacancies, and new teachers were necessary to fill the vacancies caused by his intrusions.

One change was made at Lincoln school a month ago when Miss Grace Bitcher was married to Willys Perkins. Mrs. Perkins has been teaching an ungraded room since her marriage, and Mrs. Ralph Trees, who was teaching at Spurgeon school, has been teaching the Mexican room which Mrs. Perkins formerly had. Mrs. Perkins resigns with the first of the year and her ungraded room goes back into regular classification.

Miss Esther Swidell takes the place vacated December first by the transfer of Mrs. Trees from Spurgeon school. Miss Swidell taught at Spurgeon school two years ago, but has been in the East a part of the time since.

The marriage of Miss Edna Brown at the Intermediate school left a vacancy in the teaching force there which has been filled by the election of Miss Wilma Andrews to teach Seventh grade English. Miss Andrews has been teaching at Orange since last September. Last year she taught in Nevada. Miss Andrews is a graduate of the local high school, of Pomona College and of San Diego State Normal.

Miss Alice Clausen has been teaching at McKinley school since the first of December, taking the place made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. May Elliott, assistant kindergarten director.

Mrs. Fox is substituting at Roosevelt school for Miss Merritt, who has been granted a six-weeks' leave of absence.

Changes at High School

Perry J. Burbeck is beginning the work at Polytechnic high school today, taking the place as director of military training, formerly held by Stewart S. Smith, who has gone into the service of Uncle Sam. Burbeck comes to the local school from Los Angeles where he has been with the Edison Company. He is a graduate of New Hampshire State College, where he had four years of military training and was captain of his cadet company. Burbeck has also had experience in baseball and will assist Coach Warren in handling the teams of the institution.

*Miss Bess Henry of the high school faculty has been granted a leave of absence covering twelve weeks in which she will take a course in advanced psychology at Stanford University. Her place at the high school is being filled by Miss Anna Tiede, who is an experienced teacher from the East. Miss Tiede is teaching Miss Henry's classes in German, Spanish and history.

NAVY GRIDDERS FIRE BIG GUNS IN ARMY FIGHT

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 2.—Fifteen thousand San Diegans and service men, imbued with New Year resolutions, and the inner man well satisfied with the national bird and its gastronomic associations, saw the Navy down the Army at football in the Stadium yesterday, in a game that was as full of

Stop Itching Eczema

Never mind how often you have tried and failed, you can stop burning, itching eczema quickly by applying a little zemo furnished by any druggist for 35c. Extra large bottle, $1.00. Healing begins the moment zemo is applied. In a short time usually every trace of eczema, tetter, pimples, rash, blackheads and similar skin diseases will be removed.

For clearing the skin and making it vigorously healthy, always use zemo, the penetrating, antiseptic liquid. It is not a greasy salve and it does not stain. When others fail it is the one dependable treatment for skin troubles of all kinds.

surprises as a grab-bag at a church festival. The Navy was almost twice as good as the Army at the end, for the final score was 24-13, the result settling an argument that had kept San Diego on edge from Camp Kearny to Camp Hearn since the two elevens battled to a 3-3 score in that same Stadium December 9.

It was a heroic battle and its heroism will find its way across the waters to war-torn Europe, there to carry out merciful work of the American Red Cross for the major portion of yesterday's receipts, and estimated unofficially at about $6000, will go to that organization.

The game was an inspiring conflict, one calculated to make a pacifist show a leaning towards Mars and one that would make patriotism flow right out to the tips of your toes and fingers.

Early in the game, just about one minute after play had been called and a few minutes after the Navy lads marched into a big letter "N" on the Stadium's west side, the Navy made its first score. That big "N," the uniforms of blue standing out in vivid contrast against the white cement of the seats, seemed to be the stenography on the wall.

OIL MEN START ORGANIZATION OF WIDE RANGE

FULLERTON, Jan. 2.—What promises to be a nation-wide movement of oil operators and employees has been started in the Fullerton oil fields. The Oil Men's Liberty League has been launched by local oil men. Men who become members of this organization pledge their loyalty and support to the Government for the duration of the war, and for a greater period if a majority of the members deem it necessary.

The league will seek to protect the oil industry by endeavoring to bring about and maintain harmony between employer and employee and to develop the industry to its highest efficiency and aim to see that the Government is amply supplied with oil.

The membership will consist of bona fide oil operators, heads and officers of oil companies, superintendents, foremen, and all other employees connected with any branch of the industry.

The league is not formed to combat any other organization, but will be big and broad in principle and will lend a hand in the winning of the war. It will strive to put the great oil industry upon the highest and most serviceable plane.

KAISER SOUNDS VICTORY NOTE

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 2.—Berlin reports that Emperor William has addressed the following New Year order to the army and navy:

"A year of heavy and important battles has closed. The gigantic battles, which raged from spring to fall on Belgian and French soil were decided in favor of your glorious arms. In the East the offensive spirit of our armies, by powerful blows, achieved great successes. Our arms there are now at rest. Brilliant victories in a few days destroyed the Italian offensive preparations of years.

"In co-operation with my army, my fleet again proved its efficiency by daring enterprises. The submarines are unwaveringly performing their difficult and effective work. Filled with pride and admiration we survey the heroic band of our colonial troops.

"The German people in arms has thus everywhere, on land and sea, achieved great deeds. But our enemies still hope, with the assistance of new allies, to defeat you and then destroy forever the world position won by Germany in hard endeavor. They will not succeed. Trusting in our righteous cause and in our strength, we face 1918 with firm confidence and iron will. Therefore, forward with God to fresh deeds and fresh victories."

WAS FEELING ALL RUN DOWN
Symptoms of on-coming kidney trouble deserve prompt attention, for neglect invites serious illness. Louis Buckner, Somerset, Va., writes: "I was feeling all run down; tired, with pains in my back. After taking Foley's Kidney Pills I felt like a new man."

Backache, rheumatic pains, stiff joints, sore muscles, swollen ankles, puffiness under eyes and sleep-disturbing bladder ailments yield quickly to this time-tried remedy. A boon to middle-aged men and women. Rowley Drug Co.

FIRST TO FIGHT BOYS WALLOP CAMP LEWIS

Marines Take Tournament
Epic From Army Grid Stars
By 19 to 7 Score

PASADENA, Jan. 2.—A group of grim Marines and a knot of determined soldier boys thrashed out the annual football epic of the West at Tournament Park yesterday. Assuming that there were not more than two glass eyes in the crowd, it is safe to say that 49,998 optic organs, belonging to the 25,000 persons present, feasted upon the terrific encounter in which Hugo Bezdek's Mare Island Marines thundered through the plucky Camp Lewis eleven, exacting an unconditional 19-7 surrender.

The fray was at once terrible and splendid. Possessed of the fierceness of wolves and craftiness of demons, the service men flung themselves into the thick of the argument with an abandon which smacked of days prehistoric and primordial. Sheer weight and brute strength turned the tide of battle in favor of the blue-uniformed "first to fight" boys, who masterfully suppressed the tactics of the Camp Lewis first-trench men, but had the excitement of their young lives in keeping pace with the light and shifty soldier backfield that furnished the thrills of the afternoon. There was something almost sinister about the engagement, an exotic undercurrent that set one thinking of the olden days of Caesar, instead of being "butchered to make a Roman holiday," the gladiators from Mare Island and Camp Lewis were pummeled to provide entertainment for Southern California, and the thoroughness with which they devoted themselves to the task on hand bespoke long months of training with bayonet, grenade and grappling iron. Had the Kaiser been on the sidelines he would have cabled immediately to offer unconditional terms of peace before Mare Island or Camp Lewis sees fit to take the jaunt across the big drink.

Although they pocketed the end of the score that they did not come south to get. Coach Stanton's protégés experienced the supreme satisfaction of slipping over the first touchdown that has ever been scored on the Marine dreadnaught machine. With more weight at his command Stanton would have put up a very different counter-attack when it came to solving and stopping the peculiar mass and shift formations of the Bezdekians. When the Marines knotted up in one of those remarkable contortions locating the ball was like hunting a flea in a barrel of charcoal.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT! STOP DANDRUFF AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Hair Stops Falling Out and Gets Thick, Wavy, Strong and Beautiful

Your hair becomes light, wavy, duffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Dandierine" hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Dandierine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Dandierine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Dandierine from any druggist or toilet counter, for a few cents.

BRITISH EMBASSY MEDICAL APPEARANCE

Building In Washington Is Striking Contrast to Modern Structures

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—A medical castle, transplanted bodily from the middle ages or reproduced faithfully from Canterbury Tales—fittingly describes the British embassy in Washington. It's dark red brick walls weatherbeaten and disintegrated by rains and snows of more than two score years, form a striking contrast to the modern structures surrounding it out on Connecticut Avenue.

The interior of the embassy lives up to outward impressions. Long, high ceilings, halls with walls darkened with age and a dank, musty atmosphere pervading everything. Even the cherry soft coal fire burning in the numerous old fashioned grates gives off the odor of bog fuel.

Although it is the property of the richest nation on earth the British embassy is perhaps the most unpretentious furnished in Washington. Carpets, worn and threadbare, cover the floors while the wall paper in rooms accessible to visitors, is of the vintage of '86."

But despite its appearance the embassy is perhaps the busiest diplomatic center in Washington. Specialization is the watchword of Ambassador Cecil Spring-Rice and his staff. International experts head every department. Thomas Beaumont Hohler, representative of the Crowder and Pearson interests—knows more about Mexico and Mexicans than the best versed official in our own state department. What he thinks of Carranza alone would take two hours to relate, he nonchalantly informs a questioner.

NEYLAN RESPONDS TO 'POLITICS' CHARGES

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 31.—Declaring that his refusal to approve the state defense guard bill and to agree that war emergency funds appropriated by the legislature should be free from audit, aroused the enmity of Governor Stephens, John Francis Neylan today made his answer to the charges of "personal politics" brought against him in statements by the governor and Vice Chairman Natfizer of the state council of defense. Neylan said he refused to support the defense guard bill because it empowered the governor to appoint 1000 men at $90 a month for home duty when soldiers in the trenches get only $35 monthly.

WITH THE AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY ARMY, FRANCE, DEC. 3.

(By Mail.)—One German aviator doesn't know how near he came to killing the South Bend sergeant who fired America's first gun at the Boches.

One perfect, sunny afternoon after the American batteries had been in about a week, a Boche plane scooted over for a quick look around before the French planes could chase him back.

The Boche rolled right over the camouflage gun-pit, so low that he could see that a gun was there. The gun fired. Simultaneously the aeroplane swooped, with its machine-gun going tac-tac-tac-tac. Bullets sprayed through the bower of dead leaves into the pit narrowly missing the crew.

They dropped into a dugout and laid low till the Boche was chased off.

SHOOTS AT ROBBER OF HEN ROOST AND KILLS YOUNG MOUNTAIN LION

ORANGE Jan. 2.—Shooting a mountain lion in his chicken yard north of Orange is the experience which came to C. A. Clough early Monday morning.

A number of depredateurs have been made by some kind of an animal recently. Clough, who lives on North Tustin avenue, missed two hens Saturday night, and Sunday night determined to keep a watch. About three o'clock he heard a noise in his chicken yard and grabbing his gun he went forth to see what was the trouble.

As soon as he entered the yard, the animal tried to jump a six foot fence. Clough thought it was a coyote, and blazed away at it with his shot gun loaded with number 5 shot. The charge hit the animal squarely in the back. The beast then tried to crawl into the pen and managed to shut the gate on itself. Clough fired again through the gate and missed, and the animal crawled further under the coop.

Another shot ended the struggle, and it was not until then that Clough knew that he had killed a mountain lion.

The animal was a female about two-thirds grown, and weighed 45 pounds. It is on exhibit today at the Carriker and Crowl sporting goods store.

Sam Stein's, Of CourseHEARING PHONE INCREASE UP FRIDAY AT 10 A. M.*Prominent Men of County Will Be Called to Give Testimony

Twelve or fifteen men familiar with the telephone situation in their respective communities will be called as witnesses at the hearing on the telephone rate increase and merger to be held here on Friday before Railroad Commissioner Edgerton.

Walter Eden, of this city; W. R. Garrett, city attorney of Orange, and Homer Ames, city attorney of Anaheim, who have charge of the legal end of the battle as representatives of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, have arranged their case so as to make the best possible showing against the elimination of the areas. Two witnesses each have been summoned from the principal communities affected by the proposed elimination of the free toll areas. They will be men who are thoroughly familiar with the situation, and will endeavor to impress upon the commissioner the intimate connection of the communities in which the free areas are now maintained.

The local committee has requested the commission to have its expert telephone engineer present at the hearing so that he can be interrogated on certain items in the data presented by the telephone company in its petition for the merger and increase in rates.

The hearing will be held at 10 a. m. at the court house.

YEAR 1917 BIGGEST MARRIAGE LICENSE YEAR COUNTY'S HAD

Total For Twelve Months Was 1526 As Against 1495 For Year Previous

Either in spite of the war or on account of the war, Cupid found the year 1917 to be his banner year in Orange county. During the twelve months of 1917 there were 1526 marriage licenses issued in Orange county, as against 1495 for the year 1916.

It is a noticeable circumstance that the months previous to the draft were the months when the 1917 months ran ahead of the corresponding months of 1916, while after the drafting started in August, dropped to November, the 1917 months dropped back a bit.

4 BOYS GIVE UP FAME, FORTUNE FOR ARMY SERVICEMusical Quartette of Santa Ana Men Quit Stage at Denver, Colo.

The four Santa Ana boys who started out of this city a year and a half ago to win fame for themselves and see the world under the name of "The Four American Patrolmen," are now wearing army uniforms, and are members of the band of the First U. S. cavalry at Fort Russell, Wyoming. The young men won great distinction on their concert tours and always were greeted with crowded houses.

They were Julian D. Mathews, Frank Neiman, Jules Jacques and R. A. Braniger. Mathews had the pleasure of eating turkey with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Mathews, of 401 South Bristol, yesterday, and will be here for a few days. He has a ten day furlough and he comes with full authority to recruit members for the band. During his stay he will endeavor to induce musicians from this vicinity to enlist for service in the musical organization.

Jacques is expected home in a day or two to visit his folks, south and west of Santa Ana.

Neiman accompanied Mathews to Southern California and is visiting his parents at Elsinore.

Braniger did not get a holiday furlough, as he was recently absent from camp for some days, having been called to Iowa by the death of his father. His father formerly resided at Downey.

In a spirit of patriotism, the four boys ended their successful career and bright prospects on the stage, to render service to their country. They closed their stage career for the present at Denver, Colo.

When the curtain went down on the last act, "The Four American Patrolmen" blew their own call to colors from the stage of the opera house at Denver. They laid aside their natty white suits for the khaki brown of army regulation, and the scene of their next act, changed to the camp at Fort Russell, stripped of the velvet drop curtain and replaced with the grim settings of war, while their music now has a new theme and inspiration.

AT THE COURTHOUSEMORE EVIDENCE TAKEN IN THE BIRCH CASE*In Fight For Return of Taxes, Alleged Raises of 1917 Show 1916 Wrong

This afternoon came a half hour's session of Judge Thomas' court to take additional evidence in the action brought by A. Otis Birch against Orange County for the recovery of $19,000 paid in taxes by Birch. During the presentation of evidence by the plaintiff, District Attorney L. A. West objected to the introduction of testimony to show what the assessments upon the Birch and other oil properties at Brea were in 1917. Judge Thomas upheld the objection for the time being, but said that he might later allow the evidence to go in.

After the plaintiff completed its case, a motion for a non-suit was made by the district attorney. That motion was argued by Attorneys Woodruff and Shoemaker for Birch and by West for the county. It was submitted to Judge Thomas. After considering the motion, Judge Thomas ordered the reopening of the case for the plaintiff that he might overrule the objection to the testimony concerning the 1917 assessments.

This afternoon County Assessor Sleeper was called and gave his assessments for various properties for 1917. The attorneys for Birch allege that between the 1916 assessments and the 1917 assessments there is a wide difference. It was asserted that the Fullerton Oil Company was assessed for about $25,000 in 1916 and ten times that in 1917. The Birch argument is that the 1917 raise given other companies goes to show that the 1916 assessment of the Birch company was too high.

The case is now again in the hands of Judge Thomas for a decision upon the motion for a non-suit.
